

JOURNEY TO NOWHERE

The day is over
And I m afraid to tell you
Once more
How much I love you

Green fairies
My mind took for journey
Yellow nannies
My mouth keeping
Hermetically close

Amazing baby's eyes
Innocent are dazing
Gambling for the day
Of our gathering

Road is endless
Miles and miles
To walk through
Danger to ambush
Hiding between butterfly's wings

From the muses woods
To the frozen land of Vikings,
To the battlefields of forgotten war
And green green grass of others home
